

Rail~Volution 101: An Introduction to Building Livable Communities Through Transit

San Francisco
2008

What we're about

- How transit-oriented and green design can help communities respond to our energy and environmental challenges

What you'll see

- An introduction to the basics of placemaking and transit-oriented design
- The benefits of transit to our communities
- Lessons learned from the perspective of community agencies, developers, transit agencies, and cities

Who you'll hear from

- Morning session
  - Jim Richards, Townscape, Inc., Dallas
  - G.B. Arrington, PB PlaceMaking, Portland
  - Ann Cheng, Transportation and Land Use Coalition, San Francisco

Who you'll hear from

- Afternoon session
  - Shelley Poticha, Reconnecting America, Oakland (moderator)
  - Art Guzzetti, APTA, Washington, DC
  - Will Fleissig, Communitas Development, San Francisco

Who you'll hear from

- Afternoon session
  - Bill Sirois, RTD, Denver/Jack Wierzenski, DART, Dallas
  - Theresa O'Donnell, City of Dallas/Grace Crunican, City of Seattle

Let's Get Started

- Jim Richards, Principal, Townscape, Inc., Dallas

