

Rail-Volution

The Art of Transit

Metro

Respecting Artists as Artists

Metro

Respecting Artists as Artists

Metro

Outreach to Artists

Artists workshops

Learn about upcoming transportation related public art opportunities and how artists can apply.

Opportunities include five new stations for the new Metro Orange Line Extension from Canoga to Chatsworth. Workshops are free and open to all.

Metro

For more information about Metro or to join the artist mailing list, call 213-9 or visit metro.net/art.

Metro

Artist Workshops

Metro

Community Profiles

South End Community Profile

Atomics International 1962

1962 - A full Chatsworth Reservoir with the Hughes missile facility on the shoreline

South End Community Profile

PART III: MELTDOWN MYSTERY ROCKETDYNE LEAK NEARLY 50 YEARS LATER QUESTIONS REMAIN OVER JUST HOW BIG ACCIDENT WAS.

Date: Oct 11, 2006

Publication: Daily News (Los Angeles, CA)

ISSN: 0279-8026

Byline: KERRY CAVANAUGH and BETH BARRETT Staff Writers

Nearly a half-century after the meltdown of a nuclear reactor at the Santa Susana Field Laboratory, serious questions remain about the scope of the accident and its impact on

Elements of Variability

Construction Mitigation

Metro

Construction Mitigation

Metro

Through the Eyes of Artists

Metro

Through the Eyes of Artists

East L.A.

Through the eyes of artist
Artemio Rodríguez

Rodríguez illustrates how East Los Angeles cemeteries honor its diverse history and reflect the community's sense of family and soul.

Visit metro.net and Go Metro to East L.A.

Metro

Metro

Extended Neighborhood Engagement

Metro

Free Docent Guided Tours

Metro

Free Docent Guided Tours

Metro

Translations

Metro

Translations

Translations

Metro

Translations

Metro

Translations

Metro